welcome

French Craft Collective is an exclusive one day event hosted by Business France dedicated to high end design which will give British specifiers (interior designers) and journalists the opportunity to discover hand-picked French craftspeople, renowned for their very special know how, techniques and unique expertise.

You will be able to meet with new, talented designers and ateliers, highly specialised in private residential or commercial design projects, looking to collaborate with you on exciting, bespoke projects.

It's a day for networking, learning and sharing ideas. You are welcome to join us at any time during the day.

French Craft Collective is part of London Craft Week, which celebrates outstanding British and international creativity, by bringing together over 250 established and emerging makers, designers, brands and galleries from around the world

Registration for the speed meetings & drop-in meetings, RVSP by email to:

art et floritude

The meeting of centuries-old techniques with the latest technology bring a unique essence to each Art & Floritude lighting fixture. Dreamlike, bespoke & decorative, these creations are assembled by hand in France with the utmost skill & care.

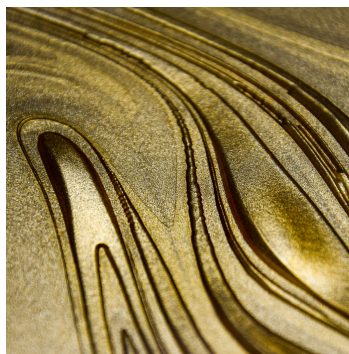

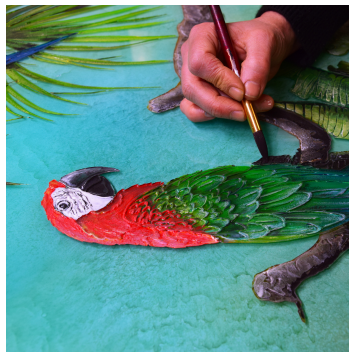

d'argentat

Scrupulous about the details, D'Argentat wield traditional skills for each creation of bespoke wooden chairs & furniture. Each piece is made in their atelier in France, where the company strive to use durable materials & upskill local workers so that the positive impact of each piece goes beyond the aesthetics. Perennial & unique, this furniture is designed with future generations in mind.

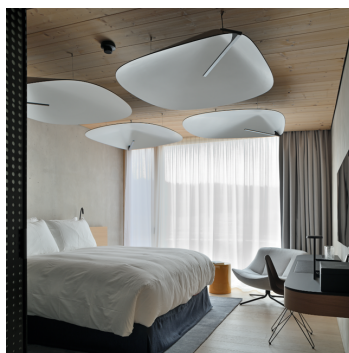

grav'or

Crafters of exceptional glass & specialists in all areas of bespoke glass & mirror work, Grav'Or aims to create unique sensory experiences through its pieces. There is no limit to Grav'Or's reinvention of glass to transform stores, premium hotels & private residences into unique properties by developing new finishes, colours, engraving techniques & lacquering.

Passion, traditional skills & beautiful aesthetics combine at IMAGE. Combining wood with Corian® & other materials, these designs are a bridge between technology & tradition. Versatile & practical, their patented technology ensures waterproof & air-resistant wood to bring a chic & timeless wooden look to every space.

Exceptional interior fittings require exceptional savoir-faire. Lamellux, a French family-owned cabinetmaking & interior-outfitting company, brings just that, applying traditional know-how & a modern approach to furnishing. Driven to excel, the company has developed new skills & combines woodwork with alabaster, resin, metal, fabric & paper & more for bespoke projects.

Made in France in keeping with the finest traditions, Meljac combines cutting-edge technology & tools with irreplaceable French know-how & craftsmanship. The resulting high quality electrical fittings push the limits of luxury by using fine materials to enhance functional objects, such as switches, sockets, reading lamps, thermostats, socket covers & bespoke plates.

A key figure in the world of luxury bathrooms, with more than a century of experience in working with brass, Maîtres Robinetiers de France are the guardians of unparalleled French know-how. Each step of the manufacturing process from casting to assembly, including machining, polishing & the treatment of surfaces is carried out in their workshops in the Paris region & in Picardy.
